

CONCORDIA
UNIVERSITY

★ The George Rudé Colloquium ★

15-16 October 1982

Popular Protest & Popular Ideology

Department of History
Concordia University
Montreal, Quebec

Popular Protest and Popular Ideology: the George Rudé Colloquium is a Canada-wide research conference honouring Concordia's distinguished historian by examining themes developed in his work. The Colloquium will take place at Concordia University on Friday and Saturday, 15-16 October 1982, and members of the Montreal and Canadian academic community, students as well as teachers, are invited to attend its working sessions.

Rudé Colloquium Schedule

Friday, 15 October 1982

7:30 pm Participant's Reception

Sheraton Centre,

1201 Dorchester Blvd. W.

Welcome: C. Bertrand, Chairman,

Department of History,

Concordia University

8:30 pm Sheraton Centre

N. Rogers History, York University,

The Crowd in History, Twenty Years On

Chair: F. Krantz History,

Concordia University

Saturday, 16 October 1982

A.M. Session: 9:00 am - 12:00 noon

Room H435, Hall Building, Sir George Williams

Campus, 1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd. W.

- W. Te Brake S.U.N.Y. — Purchase
Popular Protest in 17th C. Amsterdam
- A. Young History,
Northern Illinois University
Iconography of the Crowd in the American Revolution. A Slide Presentation
- T.J.A. Le Goff, History, York University
The Making of a Pre-Industrial Labour Force: Control and Management of French Seamen in the 18th Century.
- C.H. Johnson, History,
Wayne State University
Class Struggles in Languedoc: from Luddism to Revolution in the Hérault
Woolens Industry, 1800-1851.

Chair: G. Adams History,

Concordia University.

P.M. Session: 2:00 pm - 4:30 pm

Room H435, Hall Building,
Sir George Williams Campus.

- D.G.M. Sutherland History, Brock University
Portrait of a Rebel: the Insurgents of the Saône-et-Loire in 1851
- J.H. Merriman History, Yale University
"De la gare à la conférence contra-dictoire": Everyday Life, Class Conflict, and Political Contention in fin de siècle
Limoges
- J. Laffey History, Concordia University
Races, Hordes, Herds, Mobs and Crowds:
Some Ideological Dimensions of Social Psychology

Chair: A. Adamson, History,
Concordia University

Evening Session: 7:30 pm

Sheraton Centre

7:30 pm Banquet Dinner

Welcome: M. Grenon Director,
I.C.E.S./C.I.E.E.

After-Dinner Address:

G. Rudé History, Concordia University.

Persons wishing to attend the Colloquium should indicate this by writing directly to "The Rudé Colloquium, Dept. of History, N205, Sir George Williams Campus, Concordia University, 1455 de Maisonneuve Boulevard West, Montreal, Québec H3G 1M8." Please indicate if you wish to have the Department reserve a room for you at the Mount Royal Hotel, 1455 Peel Street, where participants will be staying. If you wish to attend the Saturday evening Banquet Dinner, please include a cheque for $30.00, made out to "Dept. of History, Concordia University."

Further enquiries about the Colloquium can be sent by mail to the above-noted address, or be made directly by telephone (514-879-5893).